Alumni Day last October brought over one hundred alums from St. Charles, Paca, Street and Roland Park to remember and give thanks for the past and to celebrate their lives and ministries.

Father Robert Leavitt, P.S.S., who arrived at Roland Park fifty years ago in August, was the principal celebrant of the Mass on Thursday, with Father Lawrence Terrien, P.S.S., former Sulpician Superior General and presently a faculty member at Roland Park, as the homilist. The theme of the liturgy was taken from Pope Francis’ encyclical “The Joy of the Gospel.”

The luncheon honored Fr. James Mazzone, St. Mary’s 1999 alumnus of the Diocese of Worcester, with the Jean Jacques Olier Outstanding Alumnus Award. Father Mazzone is the vocation director for his diocese and the director of his diocese’s house of formation. He was honored for his dedication to the formation of priests, and in particular, for the insight, creativity and energy he has brought to the preparation of international seminarians for entrance into theology in the United States. Father Mazzone spoke enthusiastically about the preparation of men from other countries and cultures for service in the Church in the United States.

You will notice that the initials P.S.S. (Priests of Saint Sulpice) now follow Sulpician names. This change in initials was mandated by the Sulpician General Assembly in Paris last July. All three Sulpician provinces now use the same initials.

Fr. Thomas J. Burke, SCC’61 and SMS’67, was the sole presenter at St. Mark’s parish in Fallston, MD at a pastoral council retreat in September. In October, he spoke at Mercy Health Care Systems in Baltimore: The ethics of end-of-life decisions, as well as being a presenter at the Presbyteral Convocation for the Diocese of Metuchen, The Holy See and Continuing Presbyteral Formation. Msgr. Fulton was also a presenter in December at the Day of Recollection for Chancery Staff in Altoona-Johnstown, Advent and Hope.

In September and October, Dr. Michael Gorman gave presentations at area churches on his new book, The Death of the Messiah and the Birth of the New Covenant. In November he attended the annual meeting of the Society of Biblical Literature, participating in panels reviewing two of his recent books and another panel reviewing a book by N. T. Wright. In addition, he gave a paper on Paul’s apocalyptic theology of the new covenant in Galatians. His article “Birth, Death, and Becoming Like God: Reflections on a New Testament Theme” was published in the December issue of the online journal The Living Pulpit (online; http://www.pulpit.org/).

In October, Fr. Edward J. Griswold, SCC’66 and SMS’72, made two presentations to the priests of the diocese of Harrisburg at their annual Convocation in Hunt Valley, Maryland. His presentations were entitled “Tools for Effective Preaching” and “Pope Francis’ Vision for Liturgical Preaching.”
Dr. Brent Laytham gave the Betenbough Homes Lectures on Youth & Family Ministry at Lubbock Christian University in November, four lectures under the title “iPod, YouTube, We Pray? Pop Culture Meets Christian Formation.” An article was also published on Wendell Berry’s fiction called “Membered and Remembered,” Christian Reflection 51 (Baylor, 2014): 27-34.

In October, Dr. Bill Scalia’s paper “The Ontological Paradox of the Cinema: A Semiotic Approach to the Presence of Absence” was presented to the 34th annual meeting of the Semiotic Society of America, in Seattle. Also, over the Fall semester Dr. Scalia published nine book reviews for various poetry journals.

At the November 2014 annual meeting of the Catholic Association Teachers of Homiletics (CATH) Fr. Edward J. Griswold was chosen to serve a two year term as president of the national homiletics guild. Membership in this organization is open to those who teach homiletics in a Catholic Seminary context and in Permanent Deacon Formation programs.

ST. CHARLES COLLEGE AND
ST. MARY’S
SEMINARY COLLEGE

1930s
Msgr. Robert A. Ford, SCC’38, (New York), wrote in to tell us that he attended St. Charles College and graduated in 1938 under the “gracious/gentlemanly leadership” of Fr. Gleason, P.S.S., and a group of excellent priests. He went on to study at Dunwoodie in New York with many of his classmates from St. Charles College. Msgr. Ford is still up and around, to a degree, with fond memories of Old St. Charles. He especially remembers North/South “two-handed” touch football where he played with two rubber kneeling mats around his hips. Msgr. Ford lives at the Cardinal O’Connor Clergy Residence, 5655 Arlington Ave., Bronx, NY 10471-1221. (See photo on P. 9)

2010s

The St. Mary’s Seminary & University Online Bookstore was launched in the fall of 2011. With the addition of some new features, it is now a superb resource not only for current seminarians and E.I. students, but also for St. Mary’s alums and others in ministry.

An easy-to-use site, you can browse and view categories of books such as “Faculty Publications” and “Faculty Recommendations.” The “Faculty Recommendations” pages—which will continue to expand with contributions from both the Seminary and the E.I. faculty.

Since our bookstore is associated with an Amazon affiliate, when you select books to purchase they are put into your Amazon cart, and the rest is easy.

Fr. Albert C. Giaquinto, P.S.S., former faculty member of St. Charles College, died on October 27, 2014, at the age of 90. A Basselin Scholar, he earned an M.A. in philosophy in 1944 and an S.T.L. from Catholic University in 1948. He was ordained a priest on May 27, 1948, for the Archdiocese of Hartford but then became indentured into the newly formed Diocese of Norwich in 1953. After ordination he served as the Newman Chaplain at the University of Connecticut, an initial pastoral immersion that spawned many of his priorities as a priest and as a future Sulpician. Fr. Giaquinto served on the faculty of St. Edward’s Seminary, Kenmore, WA (1956-1957) and St. Charles College, Catonsville, MD (1958-1963). He was President of St. Joseph’s College, Mountain View, CA (1963-1968) and Principal of St. Joseph’s High School Seminary (1962-1968). He was then President of St. Patrick’s College in Mountain View, CA (1968-1969). He then moved back to Theological College where he served for the next 30 years. He was Director of the Basselin program (1970-1974) and then Rector (1982-1986). At age 44, he was elected a Provincial Consultant (1967-1973) as the Province began to implement the changes in priestly formation mandated by the Second Vatican Council. He was then elected again as First Consultant (1977-1982) with a new generation of leaders. In 1971, he designed and implemented the first external forum formation program in a Sulpician seminary. Throughout all of those activities, Fr. Giaquinto lived a life of radical simplicity. Many experienced him as a humble, kind, dignified and thoughtful man. As many know, when the time came when he chose to speak either privately or publically, everyone stopped what they were doing, sat up and listened as he gently spoke the truth. Above all else, generations of priests and seminarians experienced his gift for relationships. He brought a sensitive pastoral presence to the entire seminary community, including not only the administrative staff, but also the kitchen and cleaning staff as well. In 2020, Fr. Giaquinto retired to St. Charles Villa. He was buried in the Sulpician cemetery in Catonsville, MD following the funeral liturgy at the Chapel of Our Lady of the Angels in Charlestown. At his Mass of the Resurrection, the Superior General, the Very Rev. Ronald D. Withers, P.S.S., (SMS’76) presided, Fr. Gerald D. McBrearty, P.S.S., (SCC’67), was the homilist, and the Provincial Superior, the Very Rev. Thomas R. Ulshafer, P.S.S., (SCC’64 and SMS’70), led the committal service at the graveside. (Excerpt from remembrance by Fr. Gerald D. McBrearty, P.S.S., Update Magazine, Winter 2015)

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

Many alums, friends and benefactors ask about gift giving opportunities at St. Mary's Seminary and The Ecumenical Institute of Theology. If you are interested in making a gift, the following may be helpful to you.

On-line Giving
We now gratefully accept donations to the annual fund on-line via PayPal. We are now able to accept both one-time and recurring gifts on-line!

Giving to the Annual Fund
The Annual Fund of both St. Mary's Seminary and The Ecumenical Institute helps support ongoing operations on an annual basis. Your gifts enable us to provide the best possible programs for our seminarians and the men and women enrolled in the E.I.

Visit www.stmarys.edu and click on Online Giving in the left sidebar to see how you can help.
