BS600 Orientation to Biblical Studies

Overall goal
The goal of this course is to introduce students to the academic tools and methods used to study the Bible, thus preparing students both for future Bible courses and for other theological study at the Ecumenical Institute. The course will focus on topics related to biblical study including: 1) the development of the biblical canon; 2) methods and tools for Biblical study; 3) the exegetical process; and 4) the transmission and growth of biblical literature.

Reading Requirements
Students should expect to read ~800 pages from the required texts listed below.

Writing Requirements
Students should expect to write at most 24 double-spaced pages for written assignments. Written assignments will be comprised of the following: a 250-word extended definition of the Bible (8% of grade); an oral report on one non-canonical gospel (8% of grade); one cartoon exegesis assignment (8% of grade); Exercise 1, 2 or 3 from Gorman, Elements, p. 100 (8% of grade); completion of the Exegetical Tools handout (8% of grade); and a final 12 page exegesis paper (20% of final grade).

Other
In addition to the reading, writing, and class participation, students should expect to participate in a midterm exam. Your final grade will be computed based on the following assignments: completion of several brief written assignments—see above (40%); mid-term exam (20%); final exegesis paper (20%); and regular attendance and appropriate participation in class discussions preceded by careful study of the assigned readings (20%).

Required Texts
1. One of the following translations of the Bible, preferably in a study edition recommended by the instructor: NRSV, RSV, NAB, NIV, TNIV
