SEMINARY & UNIVERSITY

Annual Report 2018

MAGNIFICAT ANIMA MEA
✠✠✠ DOMINVM ✠✠✠

Rev. Phillip J. Brown, P.S.S.
President Rector

WHAT IS FORMATION?

The most frequent question from members of our Board of Trustees is: "Just what do you mean by 'formation'? What, exactly, are the components of good 'formation'?" The starting point for answering is to realize that the education, training and "formation" of priests is God's work, not our own; we are merely God's instruments in preparing men for the priesthood; it is God, acting through the Holy Spirit, who forms men to be priests. Certainly we work very hard, as our seminarians will after ordination, but our work must be grounded in God and the Holy Spirit. Thus, as formators we need to be men and women of prayer, just as we expect seminarians and priests to be men of prayer, so God can work in God's mysterious ways to "form" men in their humanity and in their holiness to be good priests for the People of God, to be the kind of priests the People of God deserve. The images in this year's Annual Report allude to the many facets of formation.

The idea of formation is biblical: "the Lord God formed man out of the clay of the ground and blew into his nostril the breath of life, and so man became a living being." (Gen. 2:7) This underscores that we are part of God's creation and that each person's pathway in life should be a response to God's call. It underscores that we are first natural persons then spiritual beings. As St. Paul says, "But the spiritual was not first; rather the natural and then the spiritual. The first man was from the earth, earthly; the second man, from heaven." (I Cor. 11) That is why we emphasize human formation so much in our program; attending to human development and the natural aspects of being human that must underlie sound spirituality, holiness. We cultivate strong human virtues and the holiness that has to form the character of good parish priests. God's work, not our own: ". . . O Lord, you are our father; you are the potter, we are the clay; we are all the work of your hands." (Isaiah 64:8)

We develop and implement programs, activities and experiences around a framework of human, spiritual, intellectual and pastoral formation, but our real objective is formation of the whole person in an integrated fashion, which includes good health, habits and dispositions, and the wide variety of skills necessary to be an effective pastor capable of building and maintaining strong communities of faith; good teachers, and especially good preachers. One who celebrates the sacraments, especially the Mass, in a pleasing and inspiring way. One who knows how to minister in joyful and challenging, even in sad and tragic moments. Priests who will be there for people through the sad and happy moments of their lives; who have deep respect and love for those they minister to and for all people. Priests who have a proper sense of personal boundaries and know how to properly navigate the roles of professional minister, supportive community leader and personal friend in ways that justifiably deepen faith and confidence in priests and other ministers who can be fully trusted to help and support parishioners and others in their everyday lives and in the special moments of joy and sadness they encounter. That is the goal of formation; that is what formation is. That is what we do, what we aim to produce through our formation program at St. Mary's Seminary & University, with your help, as we continue giving thanks to God for your generosity.

A SOLID FORMATION IS INSPIRED BY HOPE...

I've had the opportunity to really come to know St. Mary's very, very well. It is the oldest seminary in the United States, founded in 1791. The Seminary gives me much, much hope, principally because it is such a beautiful place of faith and worship, formation and service. When I meet these young men who come from various dioceses, when I see how thoroughly they are being formed, and I see the response to all of this, it just fills my heart with hope.

Most Rev. William Lori, S.T.D. Archbishop of Baltimore, Chancellor, Chair of St. Mary's Seminary and University Board

Archbishop Lori congratulates Rev. Mr. John Streifel (Archdiocese of Baltimore) on the completion of his Masters of Theology at the graduation ceremony in May 2018. He was ordained for the Archdiocese of Baltimore in June, 2018.

Fr. Paul Maillet, P.S.S. in a formation conversation with Mark Donohue (Diocese of Wilmington).

Fr. Daniel Moore, P.S.S. blesses Rev. Mr. Joseph Illes (Diocese of Metuchen) as he prepares to proclaim the Gospel during Ash Wednesday Mass.

ACHIEVED

EXPRESSED THROUGH LOVE . . .

As one of their many Peace and Justice Initiatives, seminarians and faculty members joined Bishop Madden on one of his monthly prayer walks through west Baltimore, March 2019. Seminarian Brooks Jensen (Diocese of Wilmington) leads the group with the crucifix.

I think that the Seminary and seminarians are a great light to Baltimore, and in many ways. People love to see them; they love to see the seminarians, and I do, too. When they are pastors, some will be in rich parishes, some will be in poor parishes, and they'll have an opportunity to serve the Lord in both.

*Most Rev. Denis Madden,
Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Baltimore*

Seminarians Charles Onyeneke (Diocese of Albany) and Christian Cortes (Diocese of Worcester) at their pastoral placement with the Missionaries of Charity.

Seminarian Thiago Ibiapina (Diocese of Worcester) working at the Esperanza Center as part of his pastoral formation placement.

GROUNDING IN FAITH . . .

BALANCED BY HUMANITY.

Seminarians Tom Lanza (Diocese of Metuchen) and Mark DeCelles (Diocese of Scranton) meet with a nursing supervisor at Mercy Medical Center during their hospital placement as part of the pastoral formation program.

Regular physical exercise is critical to sound human formation. Seminarians enjoy competing in a weekly basketball scrimmage.

Rev. Mr. Ryan Glen greets parishioners after Mass as part of his pastoral placement in May 2018. Rev. Mr. Glen graduated in May 2018 and was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Scranton in June 2018.

The most important part of Catholic life doesn't take place at the Vatican, or in the diocesan chancery, it happens in the parish – where people come Sunday after Sunday, day after day, for the ministry of the Church. Our aim is to provide the people of God for the ordinary, and extraordinary, moments of their lives, extraordinary pastors for ordinary time.

Rev. Phillip J. Brown, P.S.S., President-Rector

Youth Theological Studies students celebrate the completion of their program with Fr. Brown and Fr. Burke, December, 2018.

YOUTH THEOLOGICAL STUDIES AT ST. MARY'S

In 1999, thanks to a generous grant from the Lilly Endowment, St. Mary's Seminary established its Youth Theological Studies Program. The program enables high school juniors to study college-level theology for 15 weeks in the fall and earn three college credits transferable into any university program. The program was permanently endowed through the generosity of the late Mrs. Anne M. Pinkard and renamed The Pinkard Scholars Program in her honor in 2005. Alumnus Rev. Martin Nocchi (SMS 2004) of the Archdiocese of Baltimore teaches the course on Wednesday evenings. This innovative program is directed by Mrs. Patricia LeNoir. In December 2018 the following students completed the program:

Julie Asbury	The Catholic High School
Caroline Burke	Maryvale Preparatory School
Kami Ciccanti	Our Lady of Mt. Carmel
Hayley Johnston	Archbishop Spalding High School
Patrick McDonald	Archbishop Curley High School
Ryan Seay	Archbishop Curley High School
Matt Spencer	The Gilman School
Olivia Russell	The Catholic High School

St. Mary's was one of a select number of seminaries awarded a supplemental grant for the Youth Theological Studies Program from the Lilly Endowment. This grant helps to sustain outstanding programs originally funded by the Lilly Endowment.

Fr. Phillip Brown, P.S.S. welcomed alumnus Fr. George A. Limmer (SCC'58 and SMS'64) and thanked Fr. Limmer for his most generous gift of a charitable life insurance policy to benefit his alma mater.

Jubilee! 1968-2018

“Consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty throughout the land...” —Lev. 25:10a

Celebrate our past. Consecrate our present. Participate in our future.

In the 2018-2019 academic year, St. Mary's Ecumenical Institute celebrated its Jubilee year. The founding of the EI was announced on May 3, 1968 by a Catholic Archbishop and an Episcopal Bishop—Lawrence Cardinal Shehan and Harry Lee Doll—ecumenical friends who had braved death threats in 1966 to advocate for open housing in Baltimore. Since that time, the EI has welcomed students from many different faith traditions and diverse life experiences to engage together in graduate theological education.

The EI's Jubilee year began with a lecture by Dr. Freeman A. Hrabowski, III, President of UMBC, who reflected on where we are 50 years after Dr. King's assassination. He asked us to consider what our society is doing for the least among us, and to hope, as Dr. King did, that we can learn to trust one another. In September, Taylor Branch, the Pulitzer Prize winning author of Parting the Waters: America in the King Years, spoke at the EI's Jubilee Convocation. He reflected on the context in Baltimore in 1968 when the EI first opened its doors not even a month after Dr. King's assassination. Dr. Willie James Jennings, our 2018 Dunning lecturer, reminded us that people of faith are a storied people. He challenged us to become better storytellers and to enter into one another's narratives. In January 2019, the EI welcomed Brother John of Taizé for a January intensive course, workshop, and Taizé service, providing a firsthand experience of the spirituality, ministry, and theology of the ecumenical Taizé community (of central France).

Throughout the Jubilee year, we have been challenged to celebrate our past, consecrate our present, and to participate in the EI's future by naming together the truth that division remains, and living into the hope that theology helps.

Dr. Freeman A. Hrabowski, III, delivered the 2018 Carroll Lecture in an event jointly sponsored by the Seminary, the Ecumenical Institute, and the Central Maryland Ecumenical Council. His talk, "Holding Fast to Dreams: Higher Education and Society 50 Years after Dr. King's Assassination," called the community to embrace speech that unites by remembering our common humanity and our vocation to the office of citizen.
