

ST. MARY'S
SEMINARY & UNIVERSITY

Annual Report 2017

Rev. Phillip J. Brown, P.S.S.
President Rector

A NEW ERA IN SEMINARY FORMATION

The Congregation for Clergy, the department of the Holy See that oversees seminary formation, recently issued a new Ratio Fundamentalis Institutionis Sacerdotalis containing the Vatican's guidelines for seminary programs. This represents the initiation of a new era in seminary formation that takes into consideration the evolution of seminary programs and social and cultural changes that have occurred since the last Ratio in 1970 following the Second Vatican Council, and Pope St. John Paul II's Pastores Dabo Vobis in 1992, both of which gave norms and guidance for seminary programs. Because these are so essential for the work we do, I wanted to let you know a little about this important new document and how it will affect St. Mary's.

Pastores dabo vobis has been the most important document for seminary formators and administrators since 1992. Pastores dabo vobis is the first official document that spoke of the "four pillars" of formation: Human; spiritual; intellectual; and pastoral. This year's Annual Report illuminates the ways our program integrates the four pillars. While Pastores dabo vobis alludes to the process of formation, its main emphasis is on the content of formation programs; hence the "four pillars" referred to on the pages that follow. The new Ratio, on the other hand, shifts emphasis to the process of formation, speaking of four "stages" of formation while not abandoning the content of the "four pillars" upon which sound formation must be anchored. These four "stages" are: A propaedeutic stage; the discipleship stage; the "configuration" stage; and the stage of pastoral integration.

The "propaedeutic" stage is something new. It takes into consideration that many young men come to the seminary today with inadequate education and formation in the Catholic faith itself to prepare them for seminary studies and formation. The Ratio calls for a preparatory period of at least one and not more than two years before a man enters the seminary that focuses on what it means to have a prayer and a spiritual life, and that gives participants a grounding in basic Catholic beliefs and practices. There is also an awareness that many who want to enter seminary today need attention to certain aspects of basic human formation to be ready to study for the priesthood. St. Mary's is working aggressively to develop an introductory and initiatory program to the propaedeutic experience that will help dioceses begin the propaedeutic stage with their seminarians. You will hear more about this program, which we intend to launch next summer (2019).

The "discipleship" stage corresponds to the current philosophy and pre-theology stages of formation; the "configuration" stage to what occurs currently during theological studies. The "integration" stage concerns the period after ordination and during the first assignment when a newly ordained deacon or priest seeks to "integrate" all that he has learned and been formed into his skill set, style and lifestyle as a pastoral caregiver.

The new Ratio offers exciting new possibilities and challenges to seminary formation. Most of its approach is already a part of the way we do formation at St. Mary's. What is new should fit well into our Sulpician approach to formation. This truly is a new era in seminary formation, filled with wonderful and exciting opportunities for improving the way we prepare men to be ordained and to provide the People of God with the pastors they deserve.

St. Mary's is a leader in the seminary world. We look forward to creatively incorporating this exciting new vision into our seminary program. The Ecumenical Institute, celebrating 50 years of extraordinary theological education for men and women of all faiths in Baltimore and beyond, is a leader in the world of ecumenical and inter-faith education and formation. And St. Mary's Center for Continuing Formation, established in 1997, continues to develop innovative programs for clergy and religious leaders as well. We will do all of this with your help, our sponsors and benefactors, as we continue to give thanks to God for you, for our alumni, and for the many wonderful and generous ways you make this possible for the men and women we form, and for the Church we serve.

Human

“The foundation and center of all human formation is Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh. In his fully developed humanity, he was truly free and with complete freedom gave himself totally for the salvation of the world” (Program for Priestly Formation, 74).

At the heart of sound human formation is the ability to relate and our relationship with one another.

Jim Smith (Trenton) aims to land a perfect shot during the annual St. Mary's Bocce Tournament held every year in the early fall as an important community-building event.

Seminarian Ryan Glenn (Scranton) leads a tour group during the bi-annual Family and Friends weekend, March 17, 2018.

Seminarians during an informal soccer scrimmage on the front lawn. Seminarians at St. Mary's have access to a wide variety of athletic facilities which they utilize throughout the year to stay active and enjoy time together in friendly competition.

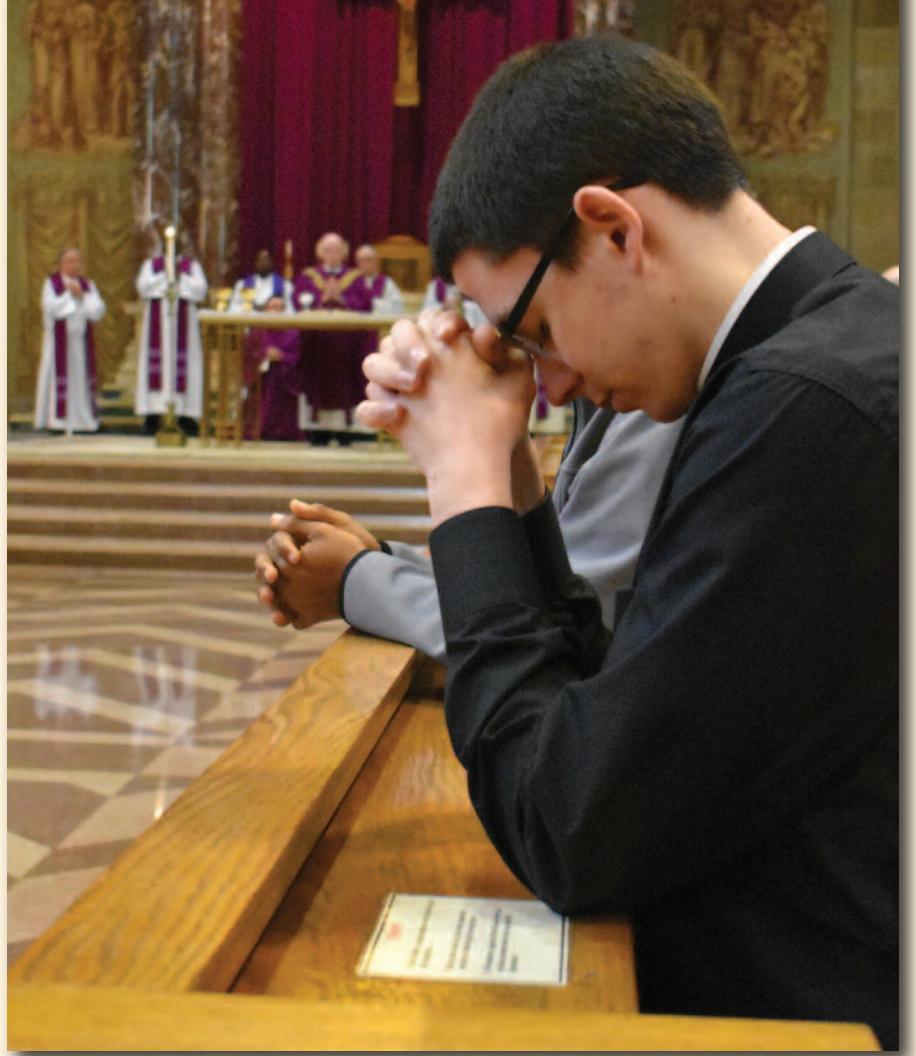

Spiritual

A priest is first called to be and then sent as a man of prayer and a leader of prayer. "A life of steady prayer is first and foremost centered in the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, the Liturgy of the Hours, and the liturgical cycles, but also in prayer that is personal and devotional" (Program for Priestly Formation, 26).

Learning how to integrate one's prayer life into the busy life of a priest is one of the primary goals of seminary formation.

Second-year theologians receiving the ministries of Lector and Acolyte by Most Rev. W. Francis Malooly (SCC 1964 and SMS 1970) on March 17th, 2018.

Brennan Ferris (Wilmington) praying with the other seminarians at Mass.

Seminarians Jim Smith (Trenton), Ryan Glenn (Scranton), Scott Kady (Baltimore), and Brandon Feikles (Erie) share their personal witness of Jesus Christ and insights into the Word during their weekly faith-sharing group gathering. (One of many small faith-sharing groups that meet each week during the evening on the residence floors.)

Intellectual

“The intellectual life nourishes the spiritual life, but the spiritual also opens vistas of understanding, in accordance with the classical adage ‘credo ut intelligam’ (I believe in order to know). Intellectual formation is integral to what it means to be human” (Program for Priestly Formation, 136).

Interactive learning is one of the key pedagogical tools utilized in St. Mary’s classrooms.

In his Cultures class, Charles Onyeneke (Albany) takes the opportunity to share an aspect of his Nigerian culture as it intersects with American culture. This kind of analysis provides insight so that international seminarians may minister more effectively in the American Catholic Church.

Dr. Ximena DeBroeck, Assistant Professor of Sacred Scripture.

Kyle Gorenski (Albany) listens intently during a lecture in Theological Anthropology.

Pastoral

"I will give you shepherds after my own heart" (Jer. 3:15). And God's "heart" has revealed itself to us fully in the heart of Christ the good shepherd. Christ's heart continues today to have compassion for the multitudes and to give them the bread of truth, the bread of love, the bread of life" (Pastores Dabo Vobis, 82).

Sound pastoral formation is the pillar of formation around which and toward which the other pillars are directed for aspiring parish priests.

Mark DeCelles (Scranton) and Tom Lanza (Metuchen) prepare to start their day at Mercy Hospital in downtown Baltimore. In the coming hours, they will spend time with a variety of patients, including the terminally ill, and their families.

James O'Reilly (Richmond) at his pastoral assignment, St. Mark Church in Fallston, MD, on Ash Wednesday.

Paul Kongnyuy (Baltimore), works in the kitchen at Our Daily Bread in Baltimore City, which serves over 500 meals to the hungry each day. Men from St. Mary's serve the poor at facilities run by Catholic Charities of Baltimore, the Missionaries of Charity, the Franciscan Sisters, and others.

Each day in the life of a St. Mary's seminarian integrates the four pillars of priestly formation, giving him a mature understanding of the priesthood and forming his priestly identity. This includes respect for every person, a sense of justice, truthfulness to his word, compassion, prudence, prayerfulness, and charity.

Fr. Phillip J. Brown, P.S.S., President Rector, and Fr. Thomas Burke, O.S.S.T., Dean of the School of Theology, joined Mrs. Patricia LeNoir and Fr. Marty Nocchi with the 2017 graduates of the Youth Theological Studies Program in December, 2017.

YOUTH THEOLOGICAL STUDIES AT ST. MARY'S

In 1999, thanks to a generous grant from the Lilly Endowment, St. Mary's Seminary established its Youth Theological Studies Program. The program enables high school juniors to study college-level theology for 15 weeks in the fall and earn three college credits transferable into any university program. The program was permanently endowed through the generosity of the late Mrs. Anne M. Pinkard and renamed The Pinkard Scholars Program in her honor in 2005. Alumnus Rev. Martin Nocchi (SMS 2004) of the Archdiocese of Baltimore teaches the course on Wednesday evenings. This innovative program is directed by Mrs. Patricia LeNoir. In December 2017 the following students completed the program:

| | |
|------------------|-----------------------------|
| Holly Beauchemin | Institute of Notre Dame |
| Catie Chmiel | Maryvale Preparatory School |
| Maura McCarthy | Institute of Notre Dame |
| Matt Meittinis | The Gilman School |
| Simeon Parker | The Gilman School |
| Joseph Schlee | Archbishop Curley |
| Jake Serio | Archbishop Curley |
| Lily Spear | Institute of Notre Dame |
| Hannah Strube | Oldfields School |
| Peyton White | Maryvale Preparatory School |

St. Mary's was one of a select number of seminaries awarded a supplemental grant for the Youth Theological Studies Program from the Lilly Endowment. This grant helps to sustain outstanding programs originally funded by the Lilly Endowment.

A GUATEMALA MISSION

During February break, February 17-24, 2018, ten seminarians and one faculty member journeyed to San Lucas Toliman on mission in Guatemala. Here we served the poor by working on homes and other projects through San Lucas Mission. We also celebrated Mass in the room of the martyrdom of Blessed Fr. Stanley Rother, graduate of Mount St. Mary's Seminary in Emmitsburg, Maryland. Most importantly, the group was able to encounter the Guatemalan people who radiated Christ through their hospitality, joy, and profound faith. Each of our hearts was formed anew through this journey!
