

St. Mary's Ecumenical Institute
Spring 2021

Wednesday, 7:30-8:30 p.m. (negotiable based on professor and students' schedules)

ST693 Readings in Systematic Theology (1 credit)

Dr. Mark Gorman

Prerequisites: ST601 and either BS621 or BS622; students are encouraged also to have taken either H601 or H603

Course Description

This course focuses on a major work of systematic theology. Students and the instructor will read and meet weekly to discuss Katherine Sonderegger's Systematic Theology, Volume 2: The Doctrine of the Holy Trinity: Processions and Persons (2020).

Required Text

Katherine Sonderegger, Systematic Theology, Volume 2: The Doctrine of the Holy Trinity: Processions and Persons (Fortress Press, 2020). ISBN 978-1451482850.

Assignments:

Follow schedule of readings and come to class with extensive notes and questions for discussion

A final paper of approximately 8 pages responding to the course text