In the Works

Preparing a deep word study that I hope to get accepted by CBQ. (See “Current Research Interests” below.)

LANGUAGES:

Italian and German

Biblical Greek and Hebrew

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

(See “Work/Professional Experience” above)

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS:

Catholic Biblical Association
Society of Biblical Literature

OTHER ACTIVITIES:

I frequently offer clergy retreats and ongoing education of clergy presentations as well as presentations on biblical study for parishes, including parish missions. In January of 2016 I offered the annual bishops retreat for the bishops of Region 5. I've guided scores of biblical study pilgrimages to the Holy Land, Greece and Turkey for parish groups, clergy and seminarians and graduate students since 2004.

In Spring of 2022 I completed an 8-week parish series: "Paul and His Letters"

CURRENT RESEARCH INTERESTS:

I continue my research into the historical, theological, and cultural background for understanding the Eucharist in the early church.

I have a mound of research notes for an extensive article on the subject: "The Concept of 'Glory' in the Hebrew and Christian Scriptures." I'd like to return to this earlier research and work it into an article worthy of publication in The Catholic Biblical Quarterly, or some other peer-reviewed journal.
