Summer 2016

News and Information for Alumni of St. Charles College, St. Mary's Seminary College and St. Mary's Seminary

His Eminence Edwin Cardinal O'Brien and Fr. Thomas R. Hurst, P.S.S. at Commencement, May 12th, 2016.

It is with mixed feelings that I write this ninth and last letter as President-Rector for Alumni News. After close to a decade as Rector I have grown in my understanding of the importance of priestly formation in the life of the Church and the role that St. Mary's Seminary & University plays in this holy mission. In addition, my own conviction of the importance of the alumni's involvement in the core mission of the seminary has deepened in my own mind and heart.

At graduation this year the seminary honored Edwin Cardinal O'Brien, who served twenty years in seminary administration, by awarding him an honorary doctorate. His commencement address emphasized the critical nature of the work of the Sulpicians in the ministry of priestly formation as well as in continuing formation of clergy: "I think you can appreciate my saying that this is a kind of homecoming for me. . . From the start I was impressed by the Sulpician spirit of this institution – a highly motivated student body, a distinguished and committed faculty and staff, and quite especially, a most effective and generous Board of Trustees."

As I conclude my time as President-Rector let me echo the Cardinal's view of the St. Mary's community. I move into the next stage of my priestly life and ministry with a thankful and joyful heart for God's goodness to me through the seminarians, faculty, staff, board and the alumni of this, my alma mater.

St. Mary's Seminary & University School of Theology Faculty

Fr. Phillip Brown, P.S.S. was appointed by the Provincial Council, with the approval of Archbishop Lori and in consultation with the Board of Trustees as the new President Rector of St. Mary's Seminary & University. Fr. Brown is a Sulpician who was ordained for the Diocese of Bismarck, North Dakota in 1989, and served as a faculty member at St. Mary's from 2001-2006 and the Dean of the School of Theology from 2004-2006. He has been the rector of Theological College in Washington D.C. since 2011. For Fr. Hurst's formal statement on Fr. Brown please see the St. Mary's website www.stmarys.edu

During his sabbatical, Dr. Michael Gorman delivered the Payton Lectures at Fuller Theological Seminary in Pasadena, California on April 6-7; his theme was "Reading John Missionally." He was also the keynote speaker at a theology conference held on March 18-19 at Northeastern Seminary in Rochester, New York on the theme of "Participating in the Mission of God." On June 9-10 he will be a keynote lecturer at Trinity School for Ministry near Pittsburgh for a conference on "Christian Formation in a Post-Christian World." In addition, his essay "The Apocalyptic New Covenant and the Shape of Life in the Spirit according to Galatians" is included in Paul and the Apocalyptic Imagination (Fortress, 2016). Dr. Gorman has posted two new videos, the first one is 18 minutes and includes some reflections about his work in general and specifically about three books he has written with Wipf and Stock: Reading Paul, The Death of the Messiah and the Birth of the New Covenant, and Reading Revelation Responsibly: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DTwY1fXiPpA>; the second one is a two-minute excerpt from the first; it's only about Reading Paul, but it does not have everything about Reading Paul that's in the first video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=P9boHmoOHaQ>

Dr. Brent Laytham gave several presentations recently: "Eating Like Jesus?," Food and Theology: A Jewish and Christian Perspective conference of the Baltimore Food and Faith Project of Johns Hopkins Center for a Livable Future, August 11, 2015; "Food Systems, Food Justice," Awake and Arise: Congregations Restoring Creation Retreat of the Central Maryland Ecumenical Council, October 22, 2015; "From Strangers to Friends: Celebrating the Spirit of Vatican II," Open Windows Festival, St. Mary's Seminary & University, Baltimore, October 25, 2015; and "Theology of the Cross: Was Luther Wright?," Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary, Nov. 5, 2015.

Fr. Jerome A. Magat, P.S.S. (cand.) was inducted into the Mount St. Mary's University Dean's Circle of Excellence Alumni Hall of Fame on March 5, 2016 in Emmitsburg, MD. Fr. Magat was selected as the seminary inductee, having attended Mt. St. Mary's Seminary from 1997 to 2002 prior to his ordination to the priesthood for the Diocese of Arlington.

In July 2015, Dr. Bill Scalia's poem cycle Love in the Trial of Belief was published in the Pomona Valley Review. In October, Dr. Scalia presented his paper "Cinema and Being: How 'Real' is Cinema? How 'Real' is Audience? An Approach Toward Transcending the Subject / Object Split in Filmic Ontology" at the annual Literature / Film Association conference in York, PA. In March 2016, Dr.

Scalia presented "Mark Twain's The Mysterious Stranger: A Religious Allegory for a Post-Christian Age" at the Northeast Modern Language Association conference in Hartford, and in April he presented "The Redemptive Aesthetics of D.W. Griffith" at the Nineteenth Century Studies Association meeting in Lincoln, NE. His brief essay on contemporary American poet Andrea Hollander appeared in the Summer 2016 Coal Hill Review. Also, Dr. Scalia's essay "Nature and the Mind of God: Emerson's Transcendental Aesthetic" was accepted for publication in the journal Perichoresis and is forthcoming in the Fall of 2016.

Departing Faculty

Father Michael Barré, P.S.S.

"Your word is a lamp for my feet and a light for my path." So says the Psalmist and so has Father Michael Barré taught and lived for close to fifty years as a priest with over half of that time at St. Mary's. Father now leaves this seminary for the Sulpician retirement home. His insightful classes, inspiring homilies, and humorous banter will continue to be with us. The entire community extended its thanks to Father at the end of the academic year Mass at which he preached a moving homily. We presented him with a gift of a picture of a Qumran manuscript of Genesis chapter one. May the God who created us all continue to strengthen Michael in the next stage of his life and ministry.

Father Daniel Grigassy, O.F.M.

At the end of the academic year banquet we bid farewell to Father Daniel Grigassy after his four years of teaching, liturgical leadership and formation work at St. Mary's. Father Grigassy's guidance of our community liturgies in addition to his teaching liturgy and sacraments taught us the importance of the liturgy as the source and summit of the Church's life. His careful guidance of seminarians in spiritual direction and mentoring assisted men in their movement toward priesthood. We wish him well in his new assignment with his Franciscan community.

Father Rene Lopez, P.S.S.

At the end of the academic year banquet we also bid farewell to Father Rene Lopez after his nine years of teaching and formation work at St. Mary's. We remembered Father's intense devotion to the Word of God in his classes and homilies as well as his advice to seminarians. Father will be on sabbatical for a year and then take up another Sulpician assignment. May the Lord strengthen him as a disciple and priest to continue walking in the footsteps of the Master.

Evening Prayer and Reception in honor of Father Hurst

“We thank you above all for your practice of pastoral charity which has unified the many different aspects of this seminary and university and has helped seminarians, priests, and laity alike to achieve in their lives that balance and harmony so essential for true holiness,” an excerpt from Archbishop William E. Lori’s comments at the ceremony. For more details and the full remarks on the event please visit the website www.stmarys.edu

Fr. Hurst was recognized by former President Rector Fr. Robert Leavitt, P.S.S., Very Rev. Ronald Witherup, P.S.S., Very Rev. John Kemper, P.S.S., Most Rev. Francis Malooly and Most Rev. Denis Madden after his remarks.

Fr. Hurst with Dr. Michael Gorman and his wife Nancy. Dr. Gorman holds the Raymond E. Brown Chair in Sacred Scripture.

Msgr. Owen Campion and Chorbishop Seely Beggiani, long-time friends of Fr. Hurst, also joined him in the Sanctuary for Evening Prayer.

Current trustee Jack Cavanaugh and his wife Cynthia join Fr. Hurst and current trustee David Gaudreau and his wife Suzanne, at the reception.

Fr. Thomas Ulshafer, P.S.S. and Mrs. Peggy Obrecht

Vice Chair of the Board, Mr. David Kinkopf, and current trustees Bill Baird III and Dr. Ellen Yankellow, join Msgr. Richard Woy.

Fr. Hurst joins fellow Sulpicians Fr. Gerald McBrearity and Fr. Gladstone Stevens at the event.

2015 - 2016

St. Mary's Seminary was the host for the annual Vianney Cup. The tournament brings together men from Theological College, Mt. St. Mary's, St. Charles Seminary and St. Mary's Roland Park. The seminarians also prayed and enjoyed dinner together.

St. Mary's annual Yom HaShoah service was a moving and memorable interfaith prayer service which was planned and led by members of the Richman-Linehan Course in Jewish-Christian studies (pictured above). Holocaust survivor Mr. Herbert Hane lights the menorah during the service on April 6th,

Most Rev. Denis Madden, Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Baltimore admitted nine seminarians into Candidacy on November 12, 2015. The rite formally acknowledges and enrolls a seminarian as a candidate for Sacred Orders.

Most Rev. Edward Malesic, Bishop of Greensburg, presided over the rite of admission into the Ministries of Lector and Acolyte on March 12th, 2016.

Fourth year seminarians Rev. Mr. Jamie Power, Rev. Mr. Michael Drevitch, and Rev. Mr. Michael Sartori, pictured at the Shrine in Washington, where St. Mary's seminarians had the privilege of joining thousands for the Mass celebrated by Pope Francis on his first trip to the United States.

St. Mary's welcomed many new seminarians in August 2015. They enjoyed a sight-seeing boat trip as part of the orientation activities.

ST. CHARLES COLLEGE AND ST. MARY'S SEMINARY COLLEGE

1940s

❖ Fr. John M. Garvey, SCC'44, can now be reached at 85 New Park Ave., Hartford, CT 06106-2184.

❖ Fr. Leo B. Lydon, SCC'45 and SMS'50, (Wheeling-Charleston), is celebrating the 65th anniversary of his ordination.

Fr. Lydon was ordained to the priesthood at the Cathedral of St. Joseph in Wheeling on June 3, 1950. As pastor, Fr. Lydon served in seven different parishes. In 1993, he retired to Clarksburg where he substituted for various priests in the different parishes of the diocese. He was then appointed administrator of St. Peter Parish in Fairmont, from where he retired in 2000. Fr. Lydon has served on the following commissions in the diocese: the Infirm Priests' Association, the Presbyteral Council, the Liturgical Commission, the Ecumenical Committee, the Vocations Committee and the Art and Architecture Committee. Fr. Lydon is also a former chaplain of the Knights of Columbus Clarksburg Council and served as chaplain of the Clarksburg Serra Club for seven years.

❖ Fr. John L. Kelly, SCC'48, PS'50 and SMS'54, (Baltimore), called to let us know that he is now living at 20 E. Burke Ave., Apt. 202, Towson, MD 21286.

IN MEMORIAM

Former Faculty

✙ Former Rector, Rev. Leonard R. Foisy, died on April 29, 2016. Fr. Foisy, a priest of Manchester, NH, was ordained in 1957 and was a member of the Society of St.

Sulpice from 1957-1980. He was an alumnus of Theological College and was the Vice Chair of the St. Mary's Seminary Board of Trustees from 1975-1977. He then served as Rector at St. Mary's from 1977-1980. Fr. Foisy returned to Manchester in 1980 and served in a number of parishes throughout the diocese until his retirement from ministry in 1997. Most Rev. Peter Libasci, Bishop of Manchester, presided at his funeral on May 6th, and his commitment will be celebrated privately at a later date at St. Mary's Cemetery in Claremont, New Hampshire.

✙ Peter W. Culman, long-time managing director of Center Stage and St. Mary's former faculty member, died on August 18, 2015. Peter was an adjunct faculty member at St. Mary's from 1990-2005. Fr. Robert F. Leavitt, P.S.S., a close friend, noted "As the managing director of Center Stage who worked regularly with directors and actors conveying the emotions behind the script of a play, Peter tried to teach seminarians how to do the same with homilies based on the script of Scripture. He influenced a great many alumni on how to use their imaginations in conveying the words and message of Jesus Christ to their congregations. He often said: 'Preach from your belly!'" He is survived by his wife Sita, who was also connected to St. Mary's as she was a former board member.

✙ Fr. William T. Miller, S.J., Associate Professor in Sacred Scripture (2008-2012), died on June 13, 2016. He entered the Society of Jesus at the Novitiate of St. Isaac Jogues in Wernersville, PA in 1959. He was ordained a priest on June 3, 1972 and went on to receive a Masters in Hebrew from Catholic University and a Ph.D. in Old Testament Theology from the Union Theological Seminary in NY. As a scholastic, Fr. Miller taught physics at St. Joseph's Prep in Philadelphia, but following ordination, and having completed his studies in theology, began his many assignments teaching theology at St. Louis University, Regis University in Denver and Gonzaga University in Spokane. In 1994, he began a 12-year tenure at the Mount Angel Abbey, a Benedictine monastery in Oregon where he served as a professor of Latin and Greek, taught Old Testament Scripture, and was Formation Director for nine years. Fr. Miller came to Baltimore in 2008 where he taught theology and scripture at St. Mary's Seminary before serving as a professor of theology at Loyola University Maryland for four years. He remained active, leading lectures and discussions on scripture until his death.

✙ Fr. Paul J. Philibert, O.P., Associate Professor of Moral Theology at St. Mary's (1974-1977), died on April 14, 2016. Fr. Philibert, a native of Baltimore, was ordained in Washington DC, in 1963. Fr. Leavitt, who worked closely with Fr. Philibert on the faculty, commented his impact, "Father Philibert's expertise as a faculty member in moral theology, catechetics, and liturgy left his students with a very balanced appreciation for the role of the priest as moral leader, teacher, and liturgist. He was gifted artistically as a musician and the arts which also made him an inspiring formator at St. Mary's, who left a lasting impression of goodness and grace on his students." Fr. Philibert was considered one of the most influential Dominican theologians, teaching at many seminaries and universities over the years. He was author of nine books on theology and liturgy.

✙ Msgr. Robert A. Ford, SCC'38, (New York), died on January 29, 2016, at the age of 97. He was ordained to the priesthood on March 25, 1944. From 1944 to 1970 he worked in various capacities with Catholic Charities and during that period was assigned to St. Malachy's Church and St. John the Evangelist Church in Manhattan. In 1966, he was the youngest priest to be elevated to Msgr. In 1970, he was assigned to St. Anthony's Church in the Bronx where he spent 12 years as Pastor. In 1982, Monsignor Ford returned home to Suffern and the Church of his youth, as Pastor of Sacred Heart Church where he served until 1990. His years in Suffern, where his brothers Hugh and Tom and their families resided, and where he lived just blocks away from childhood home on Maple Avenue, were those he treasured for the rest of his life. In 1990, he was appointed to the Office of Retired Priests, a position he held for many years. From 1997-2004, Msgr. Ford was assigned to the Church of St. John the Baptist in Piermont. In 2003, Msgr. Ford moved to the newly opened John Cardinal O'Connor Clergy Residence where he lived until his death. In his years of "retirement," he focused his attention on editing "In Diebus Illis," a newsletter he started in 1992 dedicated to honoring the accomplishments of living and deceased priests in the Archdiocese of New York. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated by Timothy Cardinal Dolan at Sacred Heart Church.

✙ Fr. William J. Shovelton, SMS'46, (Fall River), died on January 31, 2015, at the age of 92. He was ordained to the priesthood on June 15, 1946, by Bishop James E. Cassidy at St. Mary's Cathedral in Fall River. Following his ordination, he was assigned as Parochial Vicar at Our Lady of the Isle Parish, Nantucket; St. Louis Parish, Fall River; Sacred Heart Parish, Fall River; St. Thomas More Parish, Somerset; parochial administrator of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish in Seekonk, and pastor of St. William's Parish in Fall River before retiring in 1993. Fr. Shovelton also served as the Fall River District director of the Catholic Guild for the Blind. Following his retirement, he assisted his brother for several years at Holy Trinity Parish, West Harwich. Fr. Shovelton is survived by his brother, Fr. Gerald T. Shovelton (SCC'50) who resides in Lady Lake. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Timothy Church in Lady Lake.

✙ Msgr. Robert G. Barcio, PS'43 and SMS'47, died on September 30, 2015, at the age of 94. He was in his 67th year as a priest of the Diocese of Erie. He was ordained to the priesthood on May 15, 1947, by Bishop John Mark Gannon at St. Peter Cathedral. Msgr. Barcio began his priestly ministry as parochial vicar of Holy Rosary Parish in Erie. He was appointed to teach at Cathedral Preparatory School in Erie, during which time he was also weekend sacramental assistant at Blessed Sacrament, St. Jude and St. Luke parishes, all in Erie. In 1956, Msgr. Barcio was appointed to teach history at Gannon University, where he remained until 1974. He was named chairman of the History Department in 1966. In 1975, Msgr. Barcio was appointed pastor of St. Francis of Assisi Parish in Clearfield, where he served until 1985 when he was appointed pastor of St. Mark the Evangelist Parish in Erie. In 1986, he left St. Mark Parish to become the diocesan historian and archivist, a post he held until 2010. During his tenure as historian and archivist, he authored three volumes of diocesan history, as well as a pictorial history of the Diocese of Erie. Also, he co-authored Education on the Square, a history of Gannon University. He retired in 1993 but continued to celebrate daily Mass for parishioners at St. Peter Cathedral, until 2013. A funeral Mass was celebrated at St. Peter Cathedral, Erie, with Bishop Lawrence Persico as the main celebrant.

✙ Fr. William J. Maloney, SCC'43 and SMS'45, (Erie), died on March 17, 2016, at the age of 93. He was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Erie on May 6, 1948, at St. Peter Cathedral by Archbishop John Mark Gannon. Over his 67 years in the Diocese of Erie, Fr. Maloney served in seven parishes. Upon his 60th anniversary as a priest, Fr. Maloney said that prayer was essential to nurturing our spiritual lives. Fr. Maloney retired from active ministry in 1991, returning to his home diocese of Pittsburgh. For many years during his retirement, he celebrated Mass and heard confessions at St. Paul Parish in Butler, PA. A funeral Mass was celebrated at St. Bartholomew Church, with Bishop emeritus Donald Trautman as the main celebrant.

✙ Msgr. Eugene J. Kernan, SCC'44 and SMS'49, (Camden), died on April 7, 2016, at the age of 90. He was ordained to the priesthood on June 11, 1949, by Bishop Bartholomew J. Eustace (his own father had been Bishop Eustace's chauffeur from 1939-1951). Msgr. Kernan was parochial vicar at Holy Spirit Parish in Atlantic City, Assumption in Atco, and St. Peter in Merchantville. As a parish pastor, Msgr. Kernan served at Incarnation in Mantua, Sacred Heart in Mount Ephraim, and St. Paul in Stone Harbor, where he served until his retirement in 1999. He also served as chaplain at Ancora State Hospital in Winslow Township and Eastern Shore Nursing Home in Cape May Court House. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at Camden's Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception.

✙ Fr. Raymond P. Wieling, SMS'49, (Sioux City), died on August 16, 2015, at the age of 90. He was ordained to the priesthood on June 7, 1949, at Cathedral of the Epiphany in Sioux City by Bishop Joseph M. Mueller of the Sioux City Diocese. Over his 66 years in the Diocese of Sioux City, Fr. Wieling served in seven parishes. He retired in 1995, but continued to celebrate Mass throughout the Diocese until 2011. A funeral Mass was celebrated at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Danbury, with Fr. Daniel Greving and Bishop R. Walker Nickless presiding.

✙ Msgr. Charles W. McNamee, SMS'50, (Rockford), died on March 13, 2015, at the age of 90. He was ordained to the priesthood on May 20, 1950, by Bishop John J. Boylan at St. Patrick Church, Dixon. He furthered his studies and received a Master of Education from Loyola University, and a Licentiate in Canon Law (cum laude) from Rome. He was appointed a Prelate of Honor with the title of Monsignor by Pope John Paul II in 1994, and later Protonotary Apostolic Supernumerary by Pope John Paul II in 1999. Over his 65 years in the Diocese of Rockford, Msgr. McNamee served in many parishes as well as on faculty at several schools, and various other positions within the diocese. He retired from active ministry in 1999, but continued weekend assistance to Holy Spirit Parish in Roscoe, as well as Chaplain for the Boy Scouts of America. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at the Cathedral of St. Peter in Rockford.

✙ Msgr. Charles W. Daly, SMS'51, (Hartford), died on February 26, 2016, at the age of 95. He served in the U.S. Army during WWII, achieving the rank of captain. After his ordination to the priesthood in 1951, Msgr. Daly was first appointed as assistant pastor at St. Anthony Parish in Hartford from 1951-1955. He was named assistant chancellor of the Archdiocese of Hartford and executive secretary-treasurer of The Catholic Transcript in 1959. In 1962, Msgr. Daly assumed full-time duties at the chancery as the fiscal officer of the Archdiocese of Hartford. He retired in 1996. Archbishop Leonard P. Blair was the principal celebrant of a Mass of Christian Burial at the Cathedral of St. Joseph in Hartford.

✙ William S. Holland, SCC'45 and SMS'51, died on January 24, 2014, at the age of 87. Bill served in the Army and was discharged with the Rank of Sergeant. After being discharged, he was employed as a Civil Servant at Fort George G. Meade, MD, with the title of Supervisory Inventory Management Specialist. He retired after 46 years of service. During this time, Bill received many awards, among them were 18 Awards of Exceptional Performance and two Superior Civil Service Awards. Bill was a member of the National Active and Retired Federal Employees Assn (NARFE) and was a member of the Army (AUSA) until 1951. A funeral Mass was celebrated at St. Bartholomew Church in Manchester, MD.

✙ Bishop William R. Houck, SMS'51, (Jackson), died on March 9, 2016, at the age of 89. He was ordained to the priesthood on May 19, 1951, at the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception in Mobile by Bishop Thomas J. Toolen. In addition to his parish assignments, Bishop Houck was quickly put in to the ministry of Catholic education. On May 27, 1979, Pope John Paul II (now St. John Paul II) ordained Bishop Houck into the sacred order of bishops. He served with Bishop Joseph B. Brunini until Bishop Brunini retired in 1984. Pope John Paul II then named Bishop Houck as the ninth bishop of Jackson and he was installed on June 5, 1984. During his tenure as bishop, he focused on many issues involving education and evangelization. Bishop Houck served as Chair of the U.S. Bishops' committee on evangelization and helped develop and publish: "Go and Make Disciples: A National Strategy for Catholic Evangelization," which is still in use today. He also carried on the tradition of his predecessor by being actively involved in ecumenical and interreligious dialogue. While still serving as bishop of the diocese, Pope John Paul II, at the request of Cardinal Francis George, appointed Bishop Houck as President of the Catholic Church Extension Society of America in September 2001. Bishop Houck continued to serve as bishop, splitting his time between the diocese and Chicago (Extension's headquarters), until Jan. 3, 2003, when Bishop Joseph Latino was appointed Bishop of Jackson and Bishop Houck's retirement was accepted by the pope. He remained President of Catholic Extension until retiring in 2007 and returning to Jackson. In recent years, Bishop Houck has continued his involvement in diocesan, chancery and cathedral life. His presence at liturgies and parish events was a testament to his ongoing desire to be engaged in church life. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at the Cathedral of St. Peter the Apostle.

✙ Francis P. "Jackie" Peretti, SCC'45, died on January 19, 2014, at the age of 92. Frank was baptized at St. Michael Catholic Church, Frostburg, where he was a life-long parishioner and devout practitioner of his Catholic beliefs; never without his rosary, and regularly attending Saturday evening Mass with his nephew Craig Kenney. Frank was employed for a short period of time at the Celanese Corp. and Kelly Springfield Tire Co., then worked most of his career at Hercules ABL (now ATK), retiring after 33 years. He was an active resident of the Frostburg community, being co-owner of "Pecks" on Broadway St. in the early 1960's, a member of Frostburg's Planning and Zoning Board in the 70's, a life member of Frostburg Elks 470, a 70+ year member of Frostburg Knights of Columbus 1443, and a Fourth Degree Chief Justice Taney Knight. A funeral Mass was celebrated at St. Michael Catholic Church, with Fr. Doug Kenney as celebrant.

✙ Charles A. Reese, SCC'46, died on May 28, 2015, at the age of 88. He is survived by his wife of 55 years, Margaret, seven children, ten grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Before completing his law degree, Charles served in the US Air Force in Bartow, FL, and Waco, TX. He practiced law in the District of Columbia Corporation Counsel Office before entering private practice in Howard County, MD, in 1959. He was a leading education attorney in the State of Maryland for over 30 years representing numerous school systems. He also practiced law in the fields of land use and zoning, election law and administrative law. He was an active member of the Church of the Resurrection Parish in Ellicott City. He was president of the parish Holy Name Society and the Archdiocese of Baltimore's Holy Name Society. He was a founding member of the home school Association for Resurrection St. Paul School in Ellicott City and he served on the school boards of St. Louis Catholic School in Clarksville, MD, and Seton Keough High School in Baltimore. Charles was awarded the Archdiocese of Baltimore Service Award by Bishop W. Francis Malooly in 2003, the Loyola University of Maryland Alumni Jubilation Medal, and in 2011 the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Maryland's Award of the Year. He was recognized by the Howard County Bar Foundation with a Lifetime Achievement Award. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at the Church of the Resurrection.

✙ Deacon Francis E. Lambert, SCC'52, died on September 22, 2015, at the age of 84. Frank initially began studying for the priesthood, but later changed course, briefly serving in the U.S. Army and eventually earning a Master's Degree in Hospital Administration from Northwestern University in Chicago. By 1959, he was the youngest professional Hospital Administrator in the state of Ohio. He married his wife, Betty, in 1958, and they were blessed with four children. In 1976 he changed course professionally yet again, returning to his roots in the ministry. Having studied to become a Permanent Deacon in the Catholic Church, Frank left hospital administration for full time ministry, become the first Associate Director of the Baltimore Archdiocese Division of Health Care Ministry. Frank later earned a second Master's Degree in Pastoral Counseling from Loyola College in Baltimore. He dedicated the rest of his professional career to the ministry, continuing to serve as a Permanent Deacon after retiring to Green Valley, AZ in 1994. For most of his last years, Frank lived in a senior living community in Tucson, AZ, where he served as a deacon at Sunday Masses. Frank and his wife Betty volunteered many hours at the Green Valley Animal League during their retirement. A talented artist in ink, oil and graphite, Frank captured the diversity of humanity in portraiture and won numerous awards for his talent. A memorial service was held at Our Lady of the Valley Parish in Green Valley, AZ.

✙ Fr. Michael J. Polak, SMS'58, (Pittsburgh), died on March 28, 2016 at the age of 83. He was ordained to the priesthood on May 31, 1958, at St. Paul Cathedral in Pittsburgh by Bishop John Dearden. Over his 57 years in the Diocese of Pittsburgh, Fr. Polak served in seven parishes. When Fr. Polak celebrated the 50th anniversary of his ordination in 2008, he spoke of the joys of being a parochial vicar, hospital chaplain and pastor, that far outweighed the sacrifices of his ministry. He enjoyed the life so much that he assisted at more than 50 parishes in the years following his retirement in 2002. A funeral Mass was celebrated at St. Agnes Church in West Mifflin, with Bishop William Winter presiding.

✙ Msgr. Joseph C. Ansaldi, SCC'55, (New York), died on November 12, 2015, at the age of 79. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1962, and named a monsignor in 1990. He served at the Mission of the Immaculate Virgin on Staten Island, 1962-1963; he was parochial vicar at St. Dominic's, the Bronx, 1963; he served as dean of discipline and taught religion, American history, Church history and German at Cardinal Hayes in West Park, 1963-1978; he joined the faculty as academic dean at St. Joseph by-the-Sea in 1978, and taught American history, religion and French; he was principal for 27 years beginning in 1982; was vicar from 1991-1998; finally served on the faculty from 2009-2011 when he retired. At the time of his death he was a weekend associate at St. Charles parish in the Oakwood section of Staten Island. A funeral Mass was celebrated at St. James the Apostle Church in Carmel with Auxiliary Bishop John J. Jenik as principal celebrant and Msgr. Anthony D. Marchitelli as homilist.

✙ Fr. David E. Beebe, SMS'61, (Camden), died on March 2, 2016, at the age of 81. He was ordained to the priesthood on May 27, 1961 in Camden by Archbishop Celestine J. Damiano. His priestly assignments started in June, 1961, and continued throughout the diocese of 44 years at many So. Jersey parishes. He was a math and religion teacher at both Gloucester Catholic and Camden Catholic High Schools from 1962 to 1967. Fr. Beebe held many posts in the Diocese including Director of Religious Education, a lifetime member of the National Conference of Catechetical Leadership holding the positions of Treasurer and Executive Director, served on the Priest Personnel Board, the Presbyteral Council, Executive Director of the Diocesan Synod and later as Director of St. Pius X Spiritual Life Center, Blackwood and Spiritual Director of S. Jersey Cursillo Movement. He was the Campus Minister at both Glassboro State College (Rowan University) and LaSalle University before retiring in 2005. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at SS. Peter & Paul Church, Turnersville, NJ.

✙ Msgr. William L. Pitt, Jr., SCC'55 and SMS'61, (Richmond), died on February 25, 2015, at the age of 79. He was ordained to the priesthood on May 1, 1961. He was a teacher and assistant principal at St. John Vianney Seminary in Richmond from 1961 to 1967 and Assistant Pastor, St. Patrick's Parish, Richmond and a teacher at St. Patrick's and Cathedral High Schools from 1967 to 1968. He moved back to Norfolk in 1968 and became the principal of Norfolk Catholic High School until 1972. He in 1971 was pastor of Christ the King Parish in Norfolk until 1973 and was the chancellor and vicar general of the Diocese of Richmond until 1985. In 1985, he became the pastor of Immaculate Conception Parish in Hampton until 1992. He was the principal of Bishop Sullivan Catholic High School in Virginia Beach from 1992 until his retirement in 2004. In his retirement, he was generous with his time supporting local parishes, schools and priests. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Norfolk.

✙ F. David Turchik, SMS'61, died on May 31, 2014, at the age of 79. He taught English for 33 years in the Connecticut Vocational Technical Schools, during which time he was honored to be named the first "Teacher of the Year" in that state system. During his tenure there he was appointed to the State Steering Committee in English, a position he held until his retirement. In addition to being an outstanding educator, he was also a mentor and counselor for students, families and colleagues. Following his retirement from the Vocational Technical system, he was appointed to the Board of Directors of St. Basil College Seminary. Bishop Curtis appointed him to the Board of mediation and arbitration followed by a number of years instructing parents who had children preparing for baptism. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Theresa Church in Trumbull.

✙ Fr. Hugh F. Crean, SMS'62, (Springfield, MA), died on October 6, 2015, at the age of 78. He was ordained to the priesthood for the Diocese of Springfield, MA in 1962. Fr. Crean was assigned to St. Michael Parish in East Longmeadow, MA from 1962-1969. He taught Theology at Elms College from 1973-1979 and beginning in 1973 preached over 100 priest retreats throughout the United States and Canada. He served as Diocesan Director of Continuing Education for Priests from 1974-1980. Fr. Crean was Co-Pastor of Sacred Heart Parish in Springfield from 1979-1989 and from 1989 -1992 served as Diocesan Vicar for priests and Director of Clergy Personnel for the Diocese of Springfield. Fr. Crean was Pastor of Holy Name Parish in Springfield, MA from 1993-1999 and Pastor of Our Lady of Blessed Sacrament Church in Westfield from 1999-2004. In retirement Fr. Crean served as Chaplain at Providence Place Retirement Community from 2004-2010. In addition to his pastoral assignments Fr. Crean served on many diocesan boards and committees and among his many accomplishments received an Honorary Degree from Elms College. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Mary Church in Westfield.

✙ Fr. Raymond J. Orloski, SCC'56, (Harrisburg), died on January 11, 2016, at the age of 79. He was ordained a priest of the Diocese of Harrisburg by Bishop George L. Leech on May 19, 1962, at St. Patrick Cathedral in Harrisburg. Over his 53 years in the Diocese of Harrisburg, Fr. Orloski served in eight parishes until his retirement in 2008. After retiring from active ministry, Fr. Orloski remained active, assisting at parishes throughout the diocese. Notably, he was the spiritual adviser and board member of the Mother Pauline Visintainer Religious Foundation. A funeral Mass was celebrated at Holy Angels Church in Kulpmont, with Bishop Ronald Gainer as the celebrant, and Fr. John C. Kemper, P.S.S., as homilist.

✙ Fr. Carl E. Bauer, SCC'57 and SMS'63, (Wheeling-Charleston), died on October 22, 2015, at the age of 78. He was ordained to the priesthood at the Cathedral of St. Joseph in Wheeling by Bishop Joseph H. Hodges in May, 1963. Following his ordination, Fr. Bauer served as associate pastor of St. Margaret Mary Parish in Parkersburg, WV, from 1963-1966. He was also a teacher and guidance counselor at Parkersburg Catholic High School, where he then served as principal from 1966-1969. He was director of the Seminary House of Studies in Wheeling from 1969-1974; pastor of Our Lady of Peace Parish in Wheeling from 1974-1986; dean of the Wheeling Deanery from 1976-1982; pastor of St. Mary Parish in Star City, WV, from 1986-2002; pastor of St. Ursula Parish in Pursglove, WV, from 1986-1994; and was vicar forane of the Clarksburg Vicariate from 1999-2002. Fr. Bauer also served as president of the Presbyteral Council and chair of the Priests' Personnel Committee and Continuing Education Committee. He was involved in education at all levels, serving as pastor of several Catholic schools and on a number of school boards.

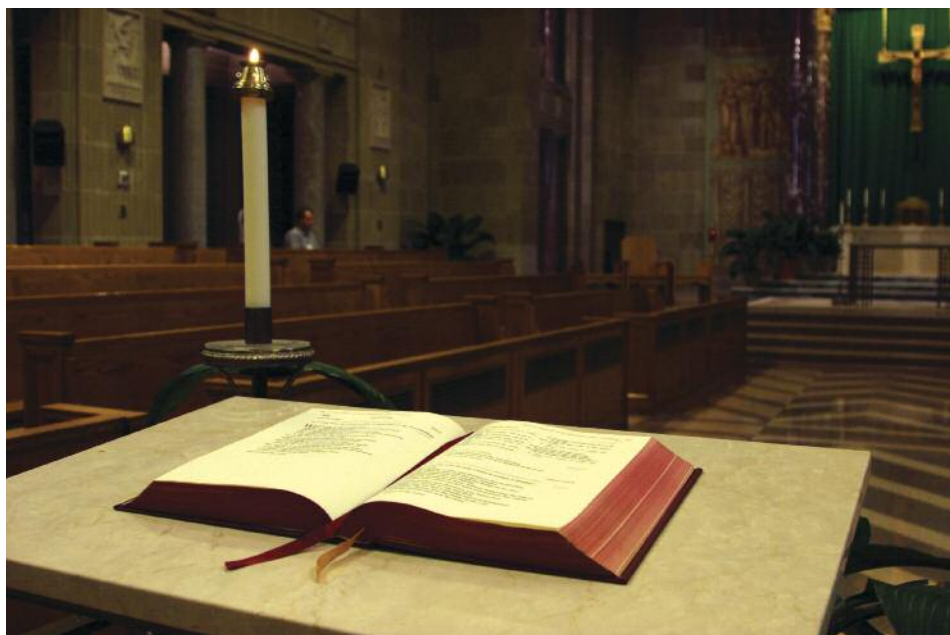

He also taught at Wheeling Jesuit University. Fr. Bauer retired from active ministry in 2002, when he moved to the rural Low Country of South Carolina, where he was charged with two small mission churches, helped in several other parishes and was chaplain at a federal correctional institution. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Mary Church in Morgantown, WV.

✙ Kenneth M. Johnson, SMS'63, died on February 1, 2016, at the age of 78. He taught at East Corinth Academy for one year following the completion of his Master's degree, and then joined the faculty at Husson College in 1965. At Husson, he became a full professor and taught there for 45 years until his retirement in 2010. He lived most of his life in the family home, moving to Sylvia Ross Home in 2012. He was a communicant of St. John's Church, St. Paul the Apostle Parish since 1939. He served as religious education teacher, parish council member, Eucharistic minister, and lecturer. He is survived by his brother, sister, two nephews and one niece along with their children. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. John's Catholic Church.

✙ Deacon Edward E. Rinderle, SMS'65, died on July 28, 2015, at the age of 75. Ed was a native of Erie, PA, a graduate in electrical engineering from Gannon University, and received his MBA from Stetson University. He moved to DeLand, FL, in 1967, working as a design engineer and eventually chief engineer at Florida Transformer in DeLeon Springs. He continued his career as President of RAF Magnetics in DeLand, and later as Director of Economic Development for the County of Volusia until his retirement. Ed was ordained by Bishop Thomas Grady in 1983 as a permanent Deacon. He served as chaplain at Stetson University Catholic Campus Ministry for 23 years, was lector for the Knights of Columbus, visited sick and homebound, served dinner to needy and homeless, assisted in building homes with Habitat for Humanity, and made himself available and willing to serve in any need. Ed had a unique ability to sense a personal need in others, and to turn his focus and his ear to their concerns. He leaves behind his wife of 53 years, Mary Lee, four children and nine grandchildren. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Peter Catholic Church in DeLand.

✙ Fr. Nicholas J. Calabro, SMS'67, (Bridgeport), died on August 24, 2015, at the age of 73. He served at St. Ambrose in Park Heights and at St. Mary of the Assumption in Govans. He was named a pastor of William of York in Ten Hills, where he served from 1986-1993. He was then named pastor of St. John's in Westminster, one of the largest parishes in the Archdiocese of Baltimore. When named a monsignor in 1996, he was the youngest priest in the archdiocese to receive the title. In 2010, he was named rector of Baltimore's Basilica of the Assumption, where he served until his death. A funeral Mass was celebrated at the Basilica of the Assumption.

Friends

✙ Patrick McEvoy "Mac" Cromwell, long-time Seminary advisor, died on September 16, 2015. Mac Cromwell chaired the Seminary's Investment Committee for over a decade. A retired attorney, Mac was involved in a number of Baltimore Catholic institutions, most notably Mercy Medical Center where he was a long-time trustee and Chair of the Board. He was also the first chairman of the Archdiocese of Baltimore's Independent Review Board. His funeral service was celebrated in the St. Mary's Seminary Chapel and Fr. Leavitt noted in his homily "With his philanthropic commitments, Mac wagered on human goodness playing against many obstacles, and figuring out how to win. As board chair at Mercy Medical Center, he did that. As the chair of our Investment Committee at the seminary he did that. In his service to the Archdiocese on the Clergy Review Board, he did that. In all these ways, he was playing a hand dealt by circumstances beyond easy control, and making the better, or at least the good, win out. Faith for him was much more than some insurance policy on the afterlife. It was a wager on goodness in this one."

✙ Joseph S. Keelty, long-time benefactor of St. Marys' died on April 10, 2016. Mr. Keelty, a retired home builder who developed Baltimore County's Rodgers Forge and Mays Chapel Village, was known as a very generous donor to schools and charities. Mr. Keelty, a very close friend of Fr. Robert F. Leavitt, P.S.S., was a major benefactor to the Bicentennial, Center for Continuing Formation, and Library campaigns. At the conclusion of Fr. Leavitt's tenure as President Rector Mr. Keelty generously endowed the Center for Continuing Formation Director of Priest Programs in his honor. Fr. Leavitt concelebrated Mr. Keelty's funeral Mass at the Shrine of the Sacred Heart in Mt. Washington.

THE HERITAGE SOCIETY

St. Mary's Seminary & University established the Heritage Society in 1990 to honor alumni and friends who value our past and are committed to our present and future. By including St. Mary's in their gift and estate plans, this special group will enable the Seminary to continue the strong tradition of academic and theological excellence which began in 1791.
